A. Scott Esq.,
Secretary,
Lloyd's Register of Shipping,
LONDON.

Dear Sir,

Wood 5 Mst. Bkn. " FOREST FRIEND "

Your letter dated 2nd. February, 1928, re the above vessel.

This vessel was bought by a Syndicate, for the sum of £50, plus the Harbor dues, which I think amounted to close on £500. They call themselves the Massey-Mort Shipping Company. L.M. Macdonald, Brookman Buildings, Grenfell Street, is acting as their agent.

This vessel left Port Adelaide last week for Newcastle, New South Wales, to load coal.

I have written to this firm asking them what arrangements they propose to make for having a Survey held, and so far have not heard from them. I have also forwarded to Lloyd's Surveyor at Newcastle a copy of your letter.

Yours faithfully,

W. Ackland-Horman
