YDS REGISTER,
LONDON.

Port of Trieste,

Via San Giorgio 5, 15 April 1911.

Replying your telegraphic enquiry "number 6 are fees paid advance", the telegram arrived too late Thursday morning your reply.

The account for the survey fees was sent in to Messrs Kryss & Co of Livorno both for hull & expenses of hull & machinery had signed the request form for survey) on the 9th with the advice that the certificates could not be issued the fees now paid either to us or to the London office, no reply has been received.

I have your letter of 12th enclosing that received from Messrs Escher, Kryss & Co; - as regards No 6, the part of the request now carried out at Regensburg the reports have been already forwarded you.

regards the latter part of Messrs Escher, Kryss & Co's we are taking no action.

I am Sir,
Your Obedient Servant
Barnard Foster

Secretary,
