Action in regard to this case has been deferred by the Committee from time to time in view of the vessel being laid up in the Tyne, and the usual undertaking was furnished by the late Owners. It appeared from a report received recently from the Registrar General that the vessel had been sold to Spaniards, and in answer to enquiry the late Owners state she is now the property of, Mr. A.T. Vega of Dijon, who does not wish to retain the vessel's class as he intends to sink her and use her as a breakwater.

The late Owners add that, so far as they know, the vessel
