

COPY.

Lloyd's Register of Shipping,

71, Fenchurch Street, E.C. 3.

Enclosure.

5th November, 1924.

Dear Sirs,

M. I have to inform you that the steamer
"VILLE D'AMIENS", Messrs. The North of Ireland Shipbuilding Company's No.98, sustained slight damage in No.1 tank during launching.

The vessel has left for your port, and it is stated that the damage will be made good on her arrival.

I shall therefore be glad if you will kindly give the case the necessary attention, and for your information and guidance I enclose herewith Belfast First Entry Report
No.9228 on this vessel, and I shall be glad if you will return this Report to this Office as soon as done with.

I am, Dear Sirs,

Yours faithfully,

Secretary.

The Surveyors,
CARDIFF.

© 2020

Lloyd's Register
Foundation

007008 007070 01167