Dear Sir,

With reference to the case of the steamer "BOSNIA" and your letter of the 4th instant I have to inform you that in consequence of the Surveyor at Fiume having inadvertently omitted to inform this office that the vessel was under survey there although instructed to do so, no part was taken in the survey by anyone from this office. Immediately on receipt of your letter in question, on learning that the vessel was at Trieste, I accompanied Mr. Bonivento in order to make a general examination, but found the vessel had sailed a few hours previously. However, as she is trading to this port, I am arranging to carry out a general examination in company with Mr. Bonivento on her return in a few days time, and will forward a report in due course.

I do not propose to charge any fee for this survey under the circumstances.

The other queries in your letter will receive attention at the same time.
