I, North Close,

Ipswich, 24th January, 1946.

Dear Sir,

In reply to your letter of the 21st instant respecting the steam trawler "BEN BREAC", I have to state that this vessel was visited on the 16th and 27th July, 1945, with a view of carrying out the Special Survey but at this time nothing was prepared. At a later date the Representative of the Owners together with Surveyors from the Ministry of War Transport and Ministry of Sea Transport, arranged that no work was to be undertaken on the vessel and in consequence the vessel is still laid up at Yarmouth.

I am, Dear Sir,
Yours faithfully,

Joynell.

The Secretary,
LONDON.
