ENCLOSURE.

30th August, 1940.

Dear Mr. Scott,

At our Meeting here today, Mr. Corry had before him the attached case of the "TEIYO MARU" in which the Owners, The Nippon Tanker Co., decided to withdraw Class about 6 weeks after the year of grace had expired.

His first reaction was to give her a red line, but having regard to the fact that the Survey had been partly held and also to the existing conditions in Japan, he would be glad to have the Chairman's advice in time for the case to be dealt with by him again at the Classing Committee next Tuesday.

Yours sincerely,

R. S. Ladden
