With reference to your letter dated the 23rd instant respecting the outstanding fees for survey of machinery of the Drifters "FOAM" and "FOGBREAK", I beg to state that the Builders at Queensferry have been reminded by telephone messages etc from this office and by the Surveyors on their visits to Queensferry regarding these fees also those for Engines 1439/1440, and they promised on each occasion to get in touch with their Manchester Office with a view to the amounts being paid. Nothing further however was heard regarding the matter, and on the 11th instant I addressed a letter to the Builders Manchester Office as per copy herewith. No reply has been received to this communication, and on telephoning to them (Manchester) today they state they are in communication with the Admiralty regarding these a/cs and will advise further on receipt of a reply.
