

71, Fenchurch Street,
London, E.C. 3.

9th October, 1939.

My dear Andrews,

Will you please point out to Mr. Norman Betts that the London Surveyors have charged the Plenty fee in this case on the wrong Horse Power, and before writing to Hull, I should like to know what he proposes to do about refunding the London part of the fee. A reply today would oblige.

At the same time would you please ask Mr. Tiddy to send me along a copy of the Annals.

Kindest regards

R. J. Sladden
