Dear Sir,

I am in receipt of your letter of the 21st September losing my Report form C.11(b) in respect of the Annual Freeboard survey carried out on the steamer "YARRA", which is returned herewith duly completed, and I very much regret that the omission occurred.

I am, Dear Sir,

Delivered to the Chief Ship Surveyor (Freeboard).

I am, Dear Sir,

noting that the omission of the word "LAW" in the sentence "LAW", which is referred to in the letter of the 10th inst. (d) L.C. 1001 is not a material omission, and no two beliefs are held by the Surveyor.
