

Lloyd's Register of Shipping.

Table C.

REPORT on the S.S. DUDDINGSTON.

submitted the Glasgow office be requested to state
if the door to the poop companionway is capable of being manipulated from both sides.
If the shifting boards closing the openings of the forecastle & bridge ster bulkheads are fitted the full height of the openings of the scuppers & sanitary discharge pipes from the superstructure ~~be fitted with Class B appliances~~ have storm valves fitted at the hell ^{and} for efficient traps at the inboard end.
If the vent 39" in height to the tunnel is specially supported
If efficient provision is made for steering in the event of a breakdown in the main steering arrangements.

G.F.B.

22.3.32.

Lloyd's Register
Foundation

007746-007753-063

J. H. Warlow
Secretary to the Committee.