LONDON

Dear Sir,

As desired in your above letter of the 15th instant, addressed to the Glasgow Office, I have to forward attached the first entry report on the Hull of the Motor Tanker "PETRO", Messrs. Ferguson Brothers (Port-Glasgow) Ltd., No. 341, together with the special report on Report Form 22.

I have also to acknowledge receipt of your telegram to Glasgow on the same subject and to confirm having replied as follows by wire last night:-

"REFERENCE YOUR TELEGRAM GLASGOW EXPECT COMPLETE TESTING PETRO FRIDAY, 23rd, AND TO FORWARD REPORTS IN EVENING".

In the absence of Mr. Boyle owing to illness, I am unable to forward the machinery report but it is expected that this will be done tomorrow, and in the meantime the testing has been satisfactorily concluded to-day, and the payment of the fees for which the account is being rendered is the only matter outstanding.

I am, Dear Sir,
Yours faithfully,

L.R.
Regan

The Secretary,
LONDON.
