

7th February, 1951.

Dear Mr. Coulson,

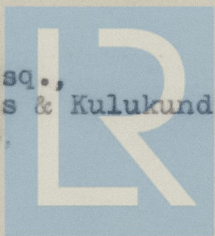

Following my interview with Mr. Kulukundis last week, perhaps you would be good enough to let me have at your convenience a list of the ships which will be transferred to that of A.B. class.

Naturally we do not want to take away their class until you are quite ready for us to do so, and it occurs to me I might be able to suggest to the Committee that I should omit the class in each case on reprint of the Register Book if they are not badly overdue for survey.

Anyhow if I could have the list of ships involved, I can let you know whether such a compromise would be possible.

With kindest regards,
Yours sincerely,

A. W. Coulson, Esq.,
