Dear Mr. Scott,

The "Embanett" left Batoum on Monday last the 30th ult. for London, where she will discharge her cargo of oil.

She will arrive in London on about the 15th instant, and the Captain (Georgiolani) asked me to communicate to the London Office an invitation, on behalf of his owners, to any of our Staff who are interested to visit his vessel in order to see the first ocean-going tanker built in Russia.

She has many unusual features and I think would be worth a visit.

I am therefore writing to you to ask you to convey this invitation to the Committee & Staff.

With kind regards from my wife
myself,
I am, Yours truly,
J. C. Cocks
