Sir,

With reference to my letter of the 5th May last, respecting the S.S. "WAYFARER" I beg to acquaint you that the Surveyor called on board respecting the alteration of the safety valves of the vessel, but nothing was done. The Superintendent was interviewed regarding the matter and states that he will go into it and have it attended to on vessel's return, and I forward herewith a letter received from him this day.

The first entry report Bel No5555, is returned herewith.

I am Sir,

Your obedient Servant

R M Manson

Principal Surveyor.

A. G. Dryhurst Esq.
