25th March, 1907

Gentlemen,

S. I am in receipt of your letter of the 23rd instant respecting the fees on the machinery of the steamer "LA PLATENSE", and note that the total amount, viz:- £15.3.3 has now been received at your port.

With regard to the machinery certificate I have to acquaint you that a telephone message was received from Messrs. Crabtree & Co. this afternoon requesting that the certificate be not issued to the Builders until they have given their sanction.

It is therefore concluded that you are retaining ~~this~~ document in the meantime.

I am, Gentlemen,

Your obedient servant,

The Surveyors,
ROTTERSAM.

Secretary to the Classification Committee.
