ENCLOSURES

14th August, 1947.

Dear Sirs,

s.s. "CHRYSSOULA"

With reference to Mr. Yannoulatos's call at this Office with Mr. Antonopoulos on the 11th instant, I beg to acquaint you that, as arranged, I cabled instructions to Mr. Van der Weel, the Society's Principal Surveyor for Holland, for a second opinion in this case and to cable the result.

Mr. Van der Weel attended personally and I think you should have both copies of our instructions to him and his reply.

The Committee are most disappointed to find that apparently Mr. Van der Weel's visit was a waste of time as on arrival he was handed a letter intimating your decision to transfer the class to the British Corporation.

The difference of opinion to which Mr. Yannoulatos referred is not borne out by Mr. Van der Weel's remarks, and I think you will agree that some explanation is called for.

Before writing to Mr. Van der Weel, therefore, perhaps you will favour me with any comments you may have to make.

Yours faithfully,

Clerk to the
Classification Committee
