Lloyd's Register of Shipping

Port Vancouver, B. C.

October 17th, 1941.

No. F-1189

This is to Certify that

R. KNOX

the undersigned Surveyor to this Society did at the request of Messrs. Westminster Iron Works, Ltd., New Westminster, attend at their plant for the purpose of examining one Steam Winch, intended for 9,300 ton Cargo Ships building in British Columbia.

This winch has been built under survey and in accordance with the approved plans.

The materials and workmanship are good and the principal steel castings and forgings have been satisfactorily tested.

A satisfactory steam trial of the winch was carried out on the 17th October, 1941, and the frame marked for identification as follows :-
