Hull, 28th August, 1947.

Dear Mr. Sladden,

As Mr. McMillan is away on a week's leave, I opened your letter to him of the 26th instant, respecting the case of the Steam Trawler "BELLONA".

In view of the importance of attempting something without delay in this matter I thought it well to apprise Mr. Palmer of the circumstances immediately, and he has accordingly arranged to go over to Grimsby tomorrow in an effort to bring about a more satisfactory solution to the problem.

Mr. McMillan has gone on a trip in the "VOLO" to Gothenburg and back, and he writes to say he is rapidly putting on weight and thoroughly enjoying himself.

With kindest regards,

Yours sincerely,

R. J. Sladden, Esq.,
LONDON.
