LLOYD'S REGISTER
RECEIVED

LONDON

Dear Sir,

Yours of the 27th. February duly received and we are handing to your representatives the Freeboard certificates to return to you.

We regret having to sever our connection with Lloyds, but trust it may be a means of causing some action to be taken to have a uniform system throughout the British Empire, which, unfortunately for the Shipowners in New Zealand, our Marine Department are not at present prepared to agree with.

In conclusion we would like to add, that Lloyds representatives have always been very courteous in any dealings with us and if we were a large shipping company we could not have received any more consideration.

Yours faithfully,
