29th September, 1954.

Dear Sir,

m.s. "PARGO" and "GORAZ"

Reverting to your letter of the 5th June last, the cases of these ships have again been under consideration in connection with a further communication received from Mr. Eduardo Scarlatti of Lisbon.

His letter was in reply to circular letters recently addressed to Owners requesting additional particulars for insertion in the new Register Book next year, and his last paragraph reads as follows:-

"In consequence we beg you to cancel the registration of our ships "PARGO" and "GORAZ" from your Books and to consider yourselves absolved from all matters of their classification."

In view of this request it has been decided in the case of the "PARGO" to delete the red line which was assigned last May, and in the case of the "GORAZ" to delete ownership and the notation 100A1 Motor Trawler (Class Contemplated) at present appearing in the classification column.

Yours faithfully,

Deputy Clerk to the Classification Committee

P.H. van der Weel, Esq.,
ROTTERDAM.
