Enclosure

4th February, 1954

Dear Sir,

Foxhol v Arrasto
(Trawlers "PARGO" & "GORAZ")

We are in receipt of your letter of the 1st February from which we are interested to learn the result of the hearing of this case.

A copy of a letter we have today addressed to Mr. Guthrie is enclosed.

We are not quite clear whether the concluding paragraph of your letter means that the Owners have still the further right of appeal on the general issue or whether the decision now made cannot be challenged but that the Owners have the right of appeal on minor matters arising from the present judgment. Would you kindly clarify this.

Yours faithfully,

pro Secretary.

P.H. van der Weel, Esq.,
ROTTERDAM.
