Dear Sir,

We duly received your letter of the 27th March from which we are glad to learn that you do not think there are likely to be any further repercussions to our disadvantage in Portugal in consequence of the "PARGO" and "GORAZ" cases.

105
Class Contemplated
Your letter has been noted by the Chief Ship Surveyor and we agree with the point of view expressed in the penultimate paragraph of your letter.

As you are keeping closely in touch with the case, we assume that, in the event of an appeal being made against the recent judgment, you will be informed of this and will let us know. In the meantime, please inform us when the period for appeal will expire as we have to bear in mind the fact that the "PARGO" appears in the Register Book as a classed ship and the question of the Special Survey will arise when this becomes due at the end of the present month.

Yours faithfully,

Chief Executive.

J. Guthrie, Esq.,
LISBON.
