Action in this case has been deferred by the Committee from time to time as the vessel was lying up and the late owners furnished the usual undertaking. The Society's Office at Liverpool now forward a letter received from the late owners from which it appears that the vessel has been sold to Messrs. Hampshire Birrell & Co., Ltd., whose representative was informed that she had not gone through the necessary survey. A letter from the new Owners is also forwarded stating that when they bought the vessel they were not fully aware of her position in regard
