10th May 1928.

Dear Sir,

In reply to your letter of the 9th instant and with reference to previous correspondence regarding the outstanding fees in the case of the Steam Trawler "SAVARIA", we beg to acquaint you that constant application has been made for payment of the amount, viz:- £4-4-0, but without success.

In a further interview with Mr.Croft to-day we were informed that the Directors of The Croft Steam Fishing Co.Ltd., had fully decided to repudiate the liability and refused to pay the account.

Mr.Croft again stated that they had no knowledge of the vessel being classed with this Society when purchased from Mr.H.Croft Baker and also did not desire the class to be retained.

The documents forwarded with your letter of the 13th March last are returned herewith.

We are, Dear Sir,
Yours faithfully,
The Surveyors.

The Secretary,
LONDON. E.C.
