Aberdeen, 22nd January 1912

The Secretary
Sir.

With regard to the steamer "Daisy" built by Messrs The John Duthie Torry S.S. Co. to the order of the Admiralty, the First Entry reports which are being despatched to you tonight, beg to state that arrangements have today been made by the Builders, for the final trials, and subsequent acceptance of the vessel by the Admiralty authorities, on Thursday next the 25th inst. As this will necessitate the handing over by the Builders of the Classification and Special Certificates, it is requested that the case may receive special attention, at the hands of the Classification Committee—

I am, Sir,
your obedient servant
pro tempore
