

submitted the time he informed that further evaluation has been given to the proposed thickness (.134") of the 2" O.D. water tubes for installation in boiler and in view of the fact that the results of combustion increase the relatively high convective furnace before reaching the tubes the tubes would be regarded as being clear of flame and accordingly the proposed thickness could be accepted.

© 2020

Lloyd's Register
Foundation

009139-009143-0182