14th October, 1920.

Dear Sirs,

A. In reply to the enquiry contained in your letter of the 8th instant, respecting the fee for the survey during construction of the Engines built by Messrs. J. Cran & Somerville Ltd., for shipment to Singapore (your first entry report No.15781) I have to inform you that one-half of the total fee chargeable on the Nominal Horse Power, which in this case will be the minimum fee of £8 plus <sup>first Entry</sup> ~~£1 expenses~~, should be charged, viz:-£4:10:0, and you will be good enough to render an account accordingly.

I am, Dear Sirs,

Yours faithfully,

Secretary.

The Surveyors,

LRISH.
