The Secretary,
London.

Dear Sir,

With further reference to your letter of the 13th inst. respecting the Tug "Garryowen II" I have to say that a more reliable train and motor car service between Limerick and Cork has now been arranged by the Railway Co. In view of this I propose to proceed to Limerick to day and I have requested the Owners of the Vessel to have the cylinders ready for inspection to-morrow.

I am, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully

Herbert W. Dove
