Dear Sir,

In reply to your letter of the 25th ulto. relative to the tug "Garryowen II" I have to say that in consequence of the dislocation of the Railway & Post Offices services it has not hitherto been practicable to arrange for the inspection of the IP & LP cylinders of this vessel.

I have, however, learned to-day that it is now possible to travel from Cork to Buttevant by motor charabanc and thence to Limerick by train and, in view of this, I will again communicate with the Owners and arrange for the survey to be held in the near future.

I am, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,
Herbert W. Dove
