10th January, 1911.

Gentlemen,

I am in receipt of Mr. Blackwood's letter of the 7th instant relative to the case of the steamer "LONDON QUEEN", and having regard to the fact that the information Mr. Blackwood furnishes shews the number of rivets actually dealt with in the vessel, I have to request he will be good enough to state how many defective rivets he found in the engine seating at his examination of it as desired in my letter of the 6th instant.

I am, Gentlemen,

Your obedient servant,

Secretary

The Surveyors,

D U N D E E.
