The Secretary.

London.

Sir,

your

In reply to ~~my~~ letter of the 31th ultimo, repeating the S.S. No. 82 (now named "LONDON QUEEN"), I beg most respectfully to inform you that the riveting of this vessel generally was tested, and specially those places that are difficult to get at, receive as far as practicable the best attention, the riveting of the engine seating generally was tested when they were almost completed with the riveting of the top plates;— and regret to note that some defective rivets must have been overlooked.

I am Sir,

Your Obedient Servant.
