5th November, 1924.

Dear Sirs,

I am in receipt of your letter of the 4th instant respecting the sale of the Admiralty Trawlers "JOHN COOPER", "JOHN LYONS", "JOSEPH GORDON" and "WILLIAM CUMMINS", and have to say that due note has been taken of the new ownership.

With regard to your Report No. 11942 on the "JOSEPH GORDON" it is observed that you appear to have applied for the fees and expenses as entered on the reports, and I shall be glad to learn to whom the account was rendered, in view of the statement in the letter above referred to that the Trawlers mentioned have been sold as they lie and that the Admiralty require no further action taken as regards their Class.

I am, Dear Sirs,

Yours faithfully,

Assistant to the Secretary.

The Surveyors,

SOUTHAMPTON.
