ENCLOSURES.

30th March, 1920.

Dear Sirs,

I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your cheque for £100:14: 9 for the fees for the survey during construction of the machinery of the Steamers "SUNCLIFF" and "SUNFIELD" (your Engines Nos. 3562 & 3563 respectively) for which I am obliged and now enclose formal receipts for the same.

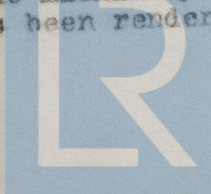

With regard to the case of the "SUNCLIFF" I beg to point out that the total fees due are £65:10:0 in accordance with the accounts rendered from this Office and from the Society's Office at Leith, as under:-

Account rendered from this Office.....	£15: 0: 0
(30/1/1920)
Account rendered from Leith Office.
Survey fees.....	48: 13: 0
Expenses.....	1: 17: 0
	<hr/>
	£65: 10: 0

In the case of the "SUNFIELD", the account rendered from this Office, which accompanied my letter to you of the 19th instant, was for.....£18: 0: 0

It would appear from the statements forwarded by you, and which I return herewith, that your remittance is intended to be in settlement of the above fees, but you will see from the details as given above that the total amount is £23:10:0, so that your remittance is £17:4:9 in excess.

As, however, there is still a fee of £44:13:0 due for the survey of the machinery of the "SUNFIELD", an account for which has been rendered to you by the

of £17:4:9 has been credited in part payment of this fee, leaving a balance due on this account of £27:8:3, which I shall be glad if you will kindly note when remitting payment for this vessel.

I am, Dear Sirs,
Yours faithfully,

Secretary.
