C.P.108122/21/3853

2nd April 1921.

Sir,

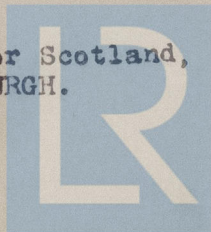

With further reference to your letter dated 9th ultimo, Ref: "AD/AN.14", I have to inform you that a signed copy of the Inventory of Stores on board the Drifter "STARLIGHT", at the time of transfer to your Department, has been received by the Admiralty, from which it is observed that a small boat's Compass is shewn as having been supplied to the vessel.

In these circumstances the Admiralty cannot admit liability for supply of a replace compass.

I am, Sir,
Your obedient Servant,

for DIRECTOR OF NAVY CONTRACTS.

The Secretary,
Fishery Board for Scotland,
EDINBURGH.
