Sirs,

In reply to your letter of the 10th inst., we inform that the necessary drawings for the lengthening of the above vessel have been made by us in the meantime and are forwarded to Rotterdam today. The letter will pass on the drawings to our head office in London.

As soon as we receive the drawings back from Lloyds, we will state the date we can start with the work.

Yours faithfully,
N.V.Boele's Scheepswerven
