S.

Dear Sir,

We beg to acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 17th instant advising us that the certificate form forwarded with our letter of the 12th instant regarding the survey held on the steamer "EMIL R. BOMAN" has been examined and found to be the one which the Society's Surveyors have been authorised to sign in accordance with the provisions of the Swedish Shipping Law as given in Section 244, Page 119, of the "Instructions to Surveyors".

We beg to advise you that the form in question has now been completed as requested, and we enclose herewith a copy which we shall be glad if you will kindly arrange to be attached to our report No.17381 on this case.

We should be obliged if a few copies of this form of certificate might be forwarded to this office for use in future cases.

We are, Dear Sir,
Yours faithfully,

The Secretary,
LONDON.

W. H. Kinlay
pro Surveyors.

009912 009914 0068

Referred to the Chief Ship Surveyor, and the Chief Engineer Surveyor.

Also for Mr. Carey to note.
