QUESTION

ANSWER

With reference to your Report No. 9700, I shall be glad to learn the position regarding the renewal of the inboard furnace of the starboard boiler.

Date: 27th June, 1963.

The Owners state that the inboard furnace of the starboard boiler will not be renewed as the boiler is not being used.

The ship is laid up as a store ship and the steam for heating the oil tanks is now taken from ashore.
