DISCLOSED
SECTION NO. 207

Lloyd's Register of Shipping,

71, Fenchurch Street, E.C. 3.

23rd August, 1928

Dear Sir,

I beg to acquaint you that I am in receipt of a communication from the Society's Surveyors at Genoa in which they state that the steamer "CRISTINA" has left that port for Catania without coming under survey for the completion of Second Special Survey No. 2, and that they have been informed by your goodself that you do not desire to retain the vessel's classification in the Society's Register Book.

As the Special Survey is now considerably overdue and repairs are required, the Committee, who have given the matter their careful consideration, have decided to expunge the vessel's class from the Register Book with a Red Line, indicating non-compliance with the Rules.

The Society's Surveyors at Genoa have been informed to this effect by cable, and they state they have advised you accordingly.

I have to add that in view of the withdrawal of this vessel's class, the record of the freeboard assigned by the Committee, together with the corresponding draught, will also be withdrawn, and the freeboard
