Dear Sirs,

With reference to my letter of the 19th instant respecting the proposed classification with this Society of Messrs. Sir Raylton Dixon's S.S. No. 617, "TAIKOO WAN YI", (Blair & Co's. Engines No. 1900), I have to inform you that I have now received a letter from the Shipbuilders requesting that the necessary Survey may be undertaken with a view to the vessel being classed 100A1.

I shall therefore be glad if you will be so good as to give the matter the necessary attention, and I may add that the fee of £90 quoted in my letter of the 19th instant addressed to the Builders, should be allocated as follows, namely:

I am, Dear Sirs,
Yours faithfully,

The Surveyors,
