de Tabacos.

Madrid, 19th September 1925.

LLOYD'S REGISTER OF SHIPPING,
WATERPORT,
GIBRALTAR.

Dear Sirs,

Yours favour of the 31st ult: to hand, enclosing a translation of yours of the 17th and requirements of the Modified Survey.

In reply thereto I beg to notify you that during the construction of our vessels, we considered it necessary to demand from the builders the your intervention and inspection, the object being that, with your credited guarantee, the highest classification would be assigned to our vessels.

But once said vessels are in our service, managed by our staff and inspected by the Port. Authorities we do not consider necessary the surveys which you propose for which reason we have not made any arrangements for carrying out the survey in question.

We remain, Dear Sirs,
Yours faithfully,

MANAGING DIRECTOR.
