January 26th, 1945.

Dear Sir,

With reference to your letter of the 16th instant, on the subject of the difficulties experienced with the hawse pipes in the Rescue Tug "MEDIATOR" (J.11827), I have to confirm the telephone conversation which took place to-day when it was stated that Mr. Murray would be visiting your Port this week-end and that the matters referred to in your letter might well be discussed with him.

I am, Dear Sir,
Yours faithfully,

G. Webster, Esq., D.Sc.,
GLASGOW.

Acting Secretary.
