Dear Sir,

With reference to your letter of the 11th instant regarding "MOBIL RADIANT" class of ship it is noted that the total fees for all seven ships is given as £ 7.000 and includes £ 700 for reclassification of three ships.

If this fee covers hull, machinery, boilers, electrical etc. should this not have been £ 700 per ship, or is this figure in addition to Special Survey fees?

With regard to the existing classed ships it is concluded that routine surveys will be charged for in addition and that Docking Surveys are covered in the £ 900 for conversion.

Yours faithfully,

The Secretary,
London.
