

RJS

16th December, 1954.

Dear Mr. Lusi,

I have shown your letter of the 15th instant regarding the "GERONTAS" to the Chairman of the Society, Sir Ronald Garrett, who wishes me to let you know how much he appreciates the efforts you made to retain the Society's class in this case.

He has asked me to show it to his colleagues, Mr. J. Green of Lloyd's, our Deputy Chairman and Treasurer, and also to Sir Guy Ropner, our Chairman of Classification.

May I add my personal thanks for the efforts you made and, at the same time, send my cordial greetings for a Happy Christmas and a most successful 1955.

With kindest regards,
Yours sincerely,

A. Lusi, Esq., EBE
