The Secretary,
Lloyd's Register of Shipping,
71, Fenchurch Street,
E.C.3.

Dear Sir,

With reference to your letter of the 8th October, 1954, dealing with your recommendations for certain deck stiffening of our steamers s.s. "Argolib" and s.s. "Gerontas. With regard to the s.s. "Gerontas", for which we are the U.K. Managers the Owners have now advised us they have decided to have the vessel transferred to the American Bureau of Shipping.

As far as the s.s. "Argolib" is concerned, she is presently loading at Buenos Aires for Antwerp/Hamburg range where she is expected to arrive in 5-6 weeks time.

The writer will be visiting your office in about a fortnight's time to further discuss this point with your Technical Departments and the outcome will be communicated to the Owners for their decisions. In most probability your recommendations will be carried out on the ship's return to this side.

Yours faithfully,
for and on behalf of A. LUSI, LTD.
