ENCLOSURE.

3rd August, 1922.

Dear Sirs,

I am in receipt of your letter of the 2nd instant respecting the freeboard of the Steamer "ROBERT DOLLAR", and in reply thereto I have pleasure in stating that the matter has been looked into, and I enclose a printed letter showing the amended freeboards which could be assigned to the vessel, subject to there being no sidelight or other opening through the vessel's side which might affect the position of the loadline disc.

I am, Dear Sirs,

Yours faithfully,

Assistant to the Secretary.

Messrs. T.L. Duff & Co.,
Bank of Scotland Buildings,
24, George Square,
GLASGOW.
