Dear Sir, ss. "AMARANTE".

With reference to my letter of the 28th. inst., respecting the classification survey of the Portuguese steamer "AMARANTE" at the Port of Lisbon, I am now in receipt of a telegram from the surveyors at Lisbon, stating that the vessel is not yet ready for survey.

I am leaving to-morrow for Seville and Cadiz, to join the Seville Surveyor in the case of the steamer "CABO VILLANO" at Cadiz and I had hoped that it would have been possible to combine the surveys at Cadiz and Lisbon in the one journey, in order to save time and expense, but in the circumstances this will not now be possible.

We are, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

B. Englendow

save time and expense, but in the circumstances, it would have been even better if Mr. Mayne had I had hoped that the vessel in the case of the "MAYNE" was not yet ready for service.

I am leaving tomorrow for Seattle and will be in receipt of a telegram from the American Consul at Seattle, stating that the vessel is not yet ready for service.

With reference to my letter of the 28th.

Dear Sir,

"MAYNE"
