The Madras Government are now trying to make suitable arrangements, owing to heavy travelling expenses, to hold as many surveys as possible at the one time on their small craft. To travel to Cochin for the tug "KERALA" alone, the travelling expenses would be approximately £45 which is out of proportion to the fee which could be charged. It is hoped in the near future to clear up all surveys due and about due on the vessels "VIZAGAPATAM", "GRAMPUS", "MADRAS", "GOUTHAMI" and "KERALA".
