Reference

Dear Sir,

I am in receipt of your letter of the 17th instant relative to the fees to be charged in the case of the Steamer "OAKLEY", and it is noted it has been decided these are to be limited to £180. It is concluded this is an inclusive fee covering both hull and machinery and the account will be rendered in accordance with the instructions.

As a result of my conversation with Mr. Sladden on the telephone I was under the impression that the fees proposed would be £180 plus a further fee covering outstanding work to be done, but it is seen that this is not now the case and the fee is to be limited as stated above.

Your remarks regarding the opening up of machinery are noted and are having the attention of Mr. Southwell.

Yours faithfully,

L.R. Edgar
