ANSD...

Dear Sir,

S.S. "OAKLEY".

Referring to writer's call this afternoon, we are negotiating with the Brokers of the Admiralty Marshall for the purchase of this vessel on behalf of German buyers, who in their offer state that same is subject to seller supplying a certificate of seaworthiness.

The Marshall will only sell "asis where is", alleging, he has no funds to procure such.

Acting on your suggestion, we shall feel obliged, if your Committee could see their way to grant a certificate for the vessel to proceed to Germany with a cargo of coal.

Thanking you in anticipation,

Yours faithfully

Alfred Loting (Shipping) Ltd.

Manager.

Submitted that subject to ships being fully drydocked, boilers resurveyed & surveyors fully satisfied after examination of these parts & there being under the Annual Classification survey requirements, including General examination & steam listed in letter 28 Sept 1949.
Certificate for the voyage may be issued. In the circumstances the survey work should not be handed over until the fee of £180 for the work previously carried out has been paid.
